What is CECE?

The Spanish Confederation of Teaching Centres (CECE) is a non-profit employers' organization founded in 1977 that represents an ample educational sector in Spain. It has branches all over the Autonomous Communities via Federations and Associations in numerous provinces of Spain. Each one of the federations represents teaching centres within regulated and non-regulated sectors.

One of the main objectives of the CECE is to put at reach of the member companies all the advantages of the association and thus:

Each one of the federations represents teaching centres within regulated and non-regulated sectors.

One of the main objectives of the CECE is to put at reach of the member companies all the advantages of the association and thus:

- To coordinate and unite forces in an attempt to face common problems.
- To conceive and maintain its own service to the members.
- To encourage private initiative.
- To represent its members in the negotiation of pacts, agreements and collective agreements so as to establish relations with professional organizations that represent the teaching and other staff of the centres as well as with public entities.

Its primary vocation being to provide service, the CECE represents the priorities of its members among which are the following organizations:

- AECAM - State Association of Music Teaching Centres
- FEM - Federation of Music Schools and Non-Regulated Music Centres of the Spanish State.
- ANESTUR - The National Association of Schools of Tourism.
- ANCEPE - The National Association of Hairdressers and of Aesthetics.
- CECAP - The Spanish Confederation of Centres and Private Academies.
- OMAT - The World Organization of Arts and Mechanics.
- AEDIS - The Association of Companies of the Disabled.
- FECEI - The Association of Child Education.

The following are the number of centres that belong to the CECE as for today:

Level	Number of Centres	Number of Teacher	Number of Students
